Teams Visiting Balgownie

For the benefit of teams visiting Balgownie, and in order to relieve the trouble which Easts experienced last Saturday, I advise all club secretaries to write Mrs. Duncombe, School Lane, Balgownie, a day or two before their visit, and make arrangements for tea, which is supplied in a class manner at cheap rates. Mrs. Duncombe's tea-rooms are on the ground (the local hotel is about half a mile away). Mrs. Duncombe's husband was killed in a local mine, leaving Mrs. Duncombe and five children, she receives some support from visiting teams. On arrival at Balgownie, get motors to ground (1½ mile from station; fare, 1/- per head), where there is a shed for stripping and dressing. Make arrangements with car drivers to take you back to station. After the tea and music and dancing, you can be indulged in at Mrs. Duncombe's, where there is an excellent piano. Leave Sydney by 12.7 p.m. train, and return by 7.44 from Balgownie.

ARTHUR MASON

Football Arguments

(Q.)—What would be the correct decision if a forward caught a bouncing ball between his knees, and in one bound kicked it right into his opponent's goal?

(A.)—Law 4 says a goal is scored when the ball has passed between the goal-posts and the bar, not being thrown, kicked, or carried by any player on the attacking side. Kicking and carrying, it is necessary to note, are both forms of touching the ball. Therefore, the answer is—a goal.

With the Australian Team. ON ITS TOUR OF JAVA.

(By E. Lukeman.)

Leaving Australia's shore with representative Soccer team not encountered without mingling feelings of pleasure and regret because we were leaving the land we love, but pleasure because of the opportunity and joy of maintaining Australia's standard of sportsmanship on and off the field of play.

The action of the Chief Secretary, Mr. A. Bruntnell, and the Minister for Justice, Mr. J. R. Lee, coming along to the boat to wish God-speed and good luck; the presenting to our boys of an Australian flag to lead us to victory, at the conclusion of the tour presented to the Dutch East India Football Association was most inspiring, and I have to ask publicly thank those gentlemen for their good wishes, and also the many enthusiasts who were on the wharf to wish us good cheer and successful tour.

A few well-chosen words the Masters wished us everything we could wish ourselves, and Mr. Lee and I responded on behalf of the team. It has not taken the boys long to become popular members of the "Houtman" party. All were present at lunch, but the majority were not too keen on the dining meal, and struggled through. "Paderewski" Hinton, with his mouth-organ, was a delightful accompanist to the Soccer Choral Society. We kept the sing-song until late in the evening. The mascot, Les. Cook, a port-weight champion of Canterbury, gave a delightful rendering of "Me and My Shadow" until Tom Laynor demanded something better, and got it. Charlie Deakin gave a capital impersonation of Charlie Chaplin, and if he is as good a footballer as he is a comedian the team will lose none of its lustre. Alec. Cameron did not seem too keen on anything, but he is now quite a good sailor. Everything was bright, and early to bed and up with the larks the following morning was the order. Thursday (somewhere between Sydney and Brisbane): Everybody well and happy. Breakfast was availed of by all the members. Morning showery, but fine later; sea as calm as a mill-pond. Deck quoits, medicine ball, and light training. We hope to go ashore at Brisbane and have a kick at the Gabba before we finally sail for Macassar, then down to hard work to get fit for the task ahead. The boys are as keen as mustard, and will be in excellent fettle before the serious fixture at Sourabaya on 7th July.

School Appeal.

An appeal for funds for footballs for the schoolboys is now being made. The Association heads the list with a donation of £20. Then an amount of £4/5/1 was collected on the day of the match versus Victoria.

Personal subscriptions are now invited. The following is the amount received to date:—

Metrop. Association ..	£20	0	0
Collection, May 26th ..	4	5	1
Mr. S. H. Stack	1	10	0
Mr. S. A. Storey	1	1	0

Total carried forward £26 16 1

Any well-wisher who is anxious to carry on the good work should address subscriptions to the Hon. Sec., Metrop. Association, Sports Club, Hunter Street, Sydney.

The proceeds of the dance at the Palais Royal are not to hand yet. Those with tickets and money are asked to return them as quickly as possible.

Australian Soccer Championship.

(To the Editor.)

Dear Sirs,—Having taken great interest in Soccer football in England and Australia for the past 35 years, I cannot understand the seemingly paltry use of the British Association's fine trophy. The State Selectors choose a team; the team plays and loses, and there is the end of interests, as far as the general public is concerned, for 12 months.

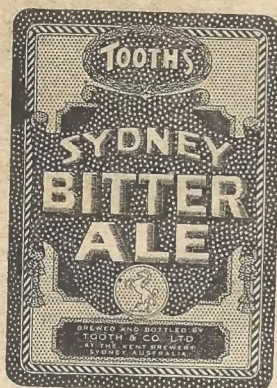

To arouse greater interest in Soccer football was undoubtedly the intention of the donors of the trophy, and to do so same should be competed for in Australia on English Cup tie lines, each State playing Club Championship Knock-out Competitions until only one team was left. Then South and West Australia should meet and decide which team should come into the semi-finals with the other three States, the winner meeting Victoria, and N.S.W. playing Queensland; draw for ground to be played on. Winners of these semi-finals to play off for the title of Championship Soccer Club of Australia and holding the trophy.

A competition on the above lines would quickly take on and put Soccer football in a premier position, all clubs being on their mettle to win as high as they can in a national competition, and supporters would quickly rally around, as it is safe to say that over £1,000,000 is paid annually to see the preliminary ties of the English Cup.

Yours faithfully,

H. SCRIMSHAW.

An Interstate competition is favoured in official football circles. N.S.W. was beaten by Victoria this year, and we must wish the victors every success—Ed.

TO-DAY'S GAMES.

Campsie Pres. A were almost stopped last week, and the improved Austens may extend them to-day. Croydon Cong. A and Leichhardt Meths. A will be close; but, as the Meths. are without the services of Billy Hunt, it might make all the difference. St. Thomas' A. and All Saints' A expect victories.

All Saints' B are going to Punchbowl to-day, and Capt. Travers and his many men will need to be wide awake. Marrickville Congs. are a few men short, so Tempe ought to get home. St. Andrew's S.H. A expect a win. Lakemba C. of E. A and Campsie Meths. C look like winners.

Balmain Meths. A and Leichhardt Meths. B might be close, but not very. Petersham and Balmain Bapts. both expect to win. H.H. Mission will extend the Bal. Meths. C. Leichhardt Meths. C must win.

St. Silas' should win, but Botany Pres. A will go under fighting. Nth. Croydon Bapt. A look like collecting a point or two. St. Alban's Dar. A are still without the services of their skipper, but still expect to account for Alex. Congs. McNeil Memorial might collect a point or two, and so might Redfern Congs.

Carlton Bapt. A and Penshurst Pres. are at Canterbury, and the Bapt. ought to run out on top. Bexley Pres. and St. Paul's, Kog., will give each other a good run for their money. Their football, however, is not of a high standard.

LOST VALUABLES.

Players are reminded that on no account should money, watches, etc., be left in dressing-rooms.

CHURCH PARADES.

On 8th July, in the Dulwich Hill Methodist Church, Cook Branch will essay their second parade this season. Messrs. Taylor, Bent, and Mather will take part, and teams are asked and expected to support the venture as at Campsie earlier in the season. On 15th July, in the Leichhardt Methodist Church, the Dalley Branch will follow suit.

PUNCHBOWL METHS.

At St. Saviour's Hall last Tuesday Punchbowl Meths. held an agreeable and successful social evening. It is to be deplored that they cannot hold these functions in their own Methodist Hall.

Football Arguments.

(Q.)—A player takes a throw near the corner flag, and the ball to one of his own players is standing practically on the opponents' goal-line with only a goalkeeper in front. Is he offside?
(A.)—No! A player cannot be offside at a throw-in.

(Q.)—If a player shoots a goal bursts the ball and it goes through the net, would the goal be counted?

(A.)—The law says the ball shall not be less than 27 inches in circumference and fully inflated. Consequently, if the ball does not conform to these conditions, a goal could not be scored.
